Welcome to St. John's!

Welcome to worship at St. John's United Methodist Church.

You are welcome and celebrated in this faith community! If you are a first time attendee or a long-time member; If you are black, brown, white or anything in between; If you are gay, straight, bisexual, lesbian, or transgender; If you are a Native American or an immigrant friend; If you are male or female, young or old, abled or differently-abled, rich or poor; No matter what you believe or doubt; No matter where you are on life's journey; You are a gift of the Creator God. Together, we are family of God, because we are gathered in the name of the One who makes us one.

St. John's has been affiliated with Reconciling Ministries Network since 1998, when we adopted a statement affirming the sacred worth of all God's children, including lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people. We celebrate our diversity and welcome all people to join us in our journey together toward greater understanding and mutual respect.

We welcome children and enjoy their participation in all aspects of congregational life. For caregivers of small children, a changing table is available in the front bathroom and the library is open if you need a quiet place to tend to your little one. A nursery with certified workers is available for infants through age 5 at the southeast corner of the building if you need respite. Ushers will be glad to direct you to any of these resources.

"Circling around" is all we can do. Our speaking of God is a search for similes, analogies, and metaphors. All theological language is an approximation, offered tentatively in holy awe. That's the best human language can achieve. We can say, "It's like---it's similar to...," but we can never say, "It is..." because we are in the realm of beyond, of transcendence, of mystery. And we mustabsolutely must-maintain a fundamental humility before the Great Mystery. If we do not, religion always worships itself and its formulations and never God."

*Call to Worship

Frank Goode Loving Father, Strong Mother, Infinite Creator, you breathe us into life; you call us to wakefulness.

Holy One, Holy Three, you call us to worship. Beloved Son, you walk with us, you heal us, you die and rise with us. Holy One, Holy Three, you call us to worship. Holy Spirit, you move in us and sing with love in us. Holy One, Holy Three, you call us to worship. You dance the dance of love, and we enter your dance with love. Alleluia!

Prayers of the People | Lord's Prayer

Rev. Ann Akin

Our Father who art in Heaven hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. thy will be done. on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith

We love and trust in God, Eternal Source and Creator of all that is and all that is to come, beyond our naming or understanding, the infinite many and yet the Holy One.

We love and trust in God revealed in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, divine love made real among us. He taught and healed, cast out evil and performed miracles; he died and was raised to life again, and makes his home among us still, drawing us close to God.

We love and trust in God, Holy Spirit, breath of life and energy of love within and among us, who gives us grace to forgive, to heal, and to work for justice for the sake of all living beings. In the One Spirit we are one Body, the Church: one in Christ, one in love, one in ministry to the world. In the name of the Holy Mystery, the Blessed Trinity, Mother, Son and Holy Spirit, we live as God's praise, now and in eternal life. Amen.
