

WE'RE SO GLAD YOU JOINED US TODAY!

Welcome to St. John's!

Welcome to worship at St. John's United Methodist Church.

You are welcome and celebrated in this faith community!

If you are a first time attendee or a long-time member;

If you are black, brown, white or anything in between;

If you are gay, straight, bisexual, lesbian, or transgender;

If you are a Native American or an immigrant friend;

If you are male or female, young or old, abled or differently-abled, rich or poor;

No matter what you believe or doubt;

No matter where you are on life's journey;

You are a gift of the Creator God. Together, we are family of God, because we are gathered in the name of the One who makes us one.

St. John's has been affiliated with Reconciling Ministries Network since 1998, when we adopted a statement affirming the sacred worth of all God's children, including lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people. We celebrate our diversity and welcome all people to join us in our journey together toward greater understanding and mutual respect.

We welcome children and enjoy their participation in all aspects of congregational life. For caregivers of small children, a changing table is available in the front bathroom and the library is open if you need a quiet place to tend to your little one. A nursery with certified workers is available for infants through age 5 at the southeast corner of the building if you need respite. Ushers will be glad to direct you to any of these resources.

In 1992 members began discussing the possibility of St. John's moving along the journey of becoming a Reconciling Congregation.

The seed of PFLAG was planted when the mother of a gay son and Tech student wanted to help start a chapter in Lubbock. She was a leader in the national PFLAG organization and they needed a place where this meeting could be held safely and "discreetly."

With its presence, St. John's began listening more and more to the stories of pain, rejection, and longing for acceptance, inclusion, and dignity by the church, particularly THIS church, which had as its motto, Open Hearts, Open Arms, Open Minds. The seeds of unrest that were planted were transplanted into the soil of a committee appointed by the church council to study the possibility of our becoming a Reconciling Congregation.

Finally, after four years of study, discussion, and many more stories shared by people who now risked telling the story of their own struggle for love and acceptance, as well as those stories told by their moms, dads, loved ones and friends, the date was set for an All-Church Conference at which we would vote on whether or not St. John's would become a Reconciling Congregation. The date set for this meeting was October 18, 1998. The meeting was opened to discussion and debate, and those who were in full support, those who were not supportive and those who were uncertain, were given the opportunity to be heard. It was truly a time of grace and gentleness prevailing. All spoke with gentle dignity and love, All were received in the same spirit. A written ballot was distributed to every member in attendance with 85% in favor of St. John's becoming a Reconciling Congregation.

Prelude Clint Barrick
Gather Us In Marty Haugen (b. 1950)

*Call to Worship Kelley LaRue
Our God is a god of resurrection. Of new life after devastation.
Of hope in the grip of evil.
And so we dare to proclaim, with pride and faith, our truths:
We believe in the power of love.
We believe in solidarity with the suffering.
We believe we are each valuable.
We believe that belonging is transformative.
The world is longing for Holy truths that reveal & courageous voices that speak real words of hope.
May your Holy Word bring us truth, hope, and inspiration today.

Hymn No. 405 The United Methodist Hymnal
Seek Ye First SEEK YE

As the children arrive	As the children depart
Seek ye first the kingdom of God	Ask, and it shall be given unto you;
And His righteousness,	Seek, and you shall find.
And all these things	Knock, and the door shall
shall be added unto you.	be opened unto you.
Allelu, Alleluia!	Allelu, Alleluia!

Prayers of the People | Lord’s Prayer Rev. Josh Stueve
God, in your graciousness/mercy
Hear our prayer.

The Lord’s Prayer
Our Father who art in Heaven hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Listening Prayer Kelley LaRue
Loving God, Patient One, we set aside our judging, our knowing with such certainty; instead we listen for your presence, your humble, unassuming, quiet voice that never gives up on us. By your grace, we listen.

*Gospel Lesson - Luke 18: 1-8, p. 81, N.T. Kelley LaRue

*An Affirmation of our Statement of Reconciliation Rev. Bobby McMillan
Today we join to reaffirm the historic statement ratified by members of St. John’s United Methodist Church in 1998. May these words be a sign of our commitment to continue to be bearers of the light of reconciling love in the present and into the future.
We affirm that through God’s redeeming love for all, we are one in Christ. We respect the inherent and valuable contributions each member makes to the Body of Christ. We celebrate our diversity and recognize the sacred worth and dignity of all persons regardless of sexual orientation, gender, race, age, ethnicity, gender identity, physical or mental capacity, education, or economic or marital status.
As we journey toward reconciliation, we proclaim this statement of welcome to all who have known the pain of exclusion and discrimination within the church.
We welcome all persons to full participation in the life and ministries of St. John’s United Methodist Church.
At the same time, we recognize that there remain differences of opinion among us. We do not seek to erase our differences. We welcome all in our journey together in faith toward greater understanding and mutual respect.
“All this is from God, who reconciled us...through Christ, and who gives us the ministry of reconciliation.” (from 2 Corinthians 5:18)

THANKSGIVING

Invitation to an Offering Rev. Josh Stueve

*Hymn, No. 560 The United Methodist Hymnal
Help Us Accept Each Other ACCEPTANCE

Anthem St. John’s Chancel Choir
Beautiful Savior Wallingford Riegger

Beautiful Savior, King of Creation,
Son of God and Son of Man!
Truly I’d love Thee, Truly I’d serve Thee,
Light of my soul, my joy, my crown
Fair are the meadows,
Fairer the woodlands,
Robed in flow’rs of fragrant Spring
Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer,
He makes our sorrowing spirit sing.
Beautiful Saviour, Lord of the nations,
Son of God and Son of Man!
Glory, honor, praise,
Now and forever more be Thine!

*Doxology and Presentation of Gifts No. 94
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

SENDING FORTH

Reception of New Members Rev. Josh Stueve
We rejoice to welcome you as members of Christ’s Holy Church, and we bid you welcome to St. John’s United Methodist Church. With you we renew our vows to uphold it by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness.

*Hymn, No. 2172 The Faith We Sing
We Are Called WE ARE CALLED

Benediction Rev. Josh Stueve
Now, we leave this place of joyful worship.
Let us go forth filled with hope.
For God our Creator is making all things new in Jesus Christ.
We go to witness God’s love and to be signs of the new creation.
May God, who knows our joy, our angst, our doubt, and our faith, guide us.
May we be courageous, stay faithful and live to honor Christ.
God be with you.
And also with you.
Go in reconciling love.
Amen.
